

Wrap Up: Who Am I?

Understanding who you are and defining your own Road in life is a continuous process. While you start at your Set Point, the journey really begins when you identify your Interests and understand what it is that you truly enjoy about them. It continues as you recognize your Foundation and discover who you are at your core. Combining your Interests with your Foundation allows you to focus on an educational path that will be meaningful and satisfying. As you grow and gain more life experiences, this process will evolve. The better acquainted you are with yourself, the more your Road will reflect who you want to be.

Take a few minutes to reflect on what you have learned in Unit 1. If you need to, refer back to the previous activities as you respond to the following questions:

Looking back at what you wrote about your Set Point on page 7, how have you changed over the course of these lessons? Update your Set Point on these next few lines.

Which lesson provided a better understanding of yourself and what you want? (Interests, Foundation, Road map) Explain.

After completing these lessons, what decisions are you able to make about high school or college?

Based on what you've learned, name one concrete step you will take at this point to achieve a goal as it relates to your education.

As you make your way through the rest of this workbook, continue to reflect on your Interests and Foundation and what makes you you. Your teachers, counselors and parents are a great resource to start the conversation. The more often you take the time to consider who you are and what you want for yourself, the more genuine your Road to (and through) college will be. The more genuine your path, the more confident you will feel that you are doing what you're meant to be doing and living a life defined by you.
